

MAKING PASTELS EASY

at Mattawoman Creek Art Center

May 11, 2022, 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Fee: $65 before April 20th and $75 after April 20th plus $15 Supply Fee

Instructor: Denise Calisti

The focus in this class is to help students gain confidence in using pastels to develop depth and clarity through color placement and refining edges to show emotion in painting, not just perfect lines and realistic interpretation.

Denise grew up believing she had to be an articulate draftsman but knew the best paintings had more than that. They show motion, emotion, and love. In this class we will study these thoughts and try to bring out the best each student wishes to achieve that day.

Materials required: Pastels, paper (11x14), board to support your paper (foam core). If you have pastels, bring them. For $15 payable to the teacher in class, special sandpaper that is a highly professional grade sand grit of 400 and for the use of her pastels.

Bring photos you wish to draw. All skill levels welcome.
